OFFICIAL LETTER HEAD OF THE ORGANIZATION

ICSFT Statement

The 73rd Anniversary of the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Since the founding of the United Nations, there has been a keen quest for attention to human rights and recognition of the inherent dignity and equal rights of all members of the human family based on freedom, justice, and peace in the world.

However, despite the commitment of Member States to cooperate with the United Nations in ensuring respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms, the grave violations of the rights of certain peoples in the international arena today requires a review of the obligations of the Member States of the international system.

Similarly, in its thirty articles, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights contains an emphasis on the rights of individuals, a belief in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and status of the individual, and in the equal rights of men and women, while laying the foundations for social advancement along with the promotion of life in freedom, justice and equality.

Therefore, ICSFT calls upon all Member States of the international system to work to rebuild confidence and to expand freedoms and restore equality. In addition, ICSFT calls these states and to stand firm with the suffering of peoples who suffer from violating their rights in Palestine, Yemen, Bahrain, Sudan, Ethiopia, Myanmar, Afghanistan and all over the world. Perhaps these practices will bring the world states up to this Declaration and promote human rights everywhere.
